REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. This is an Examiner's statement of reasons for allowance. The closest prior art Stefik U.S. Pat. No. 5,715,403 discloses the claimed method wherein the content package comprises a content portion and the first license (or repository).

JP 2005301587, Sato et al. discloses a license for digital contents to be newly prepared by connecting two or more digital contents.

However, neither Stefik nor Sato singularly or in combination fails to disclose the recited feature:

As per claims 7 and 52 " a second digital license which permits access to said second content package on the first computing device, transmitting said second content package to the first computing device, and performing at least one action in compliance with a first one of said one or more terms, wherein said first term requires revocation of the first digital license, and wherein said at least one action comprises sending an instruction to the second computing device which causes the second computing device to make the first digital license unusable".
